

Daily Democrat.

SECOND EDITION.

BY TELEGRAPH
TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
FROM WASHINGTON.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

REPAIRING OF.
SAM was lately vexed. Van Dem says. To get material to repair his wagons. He had to go to the grave. The roads in Hell were dangerous to travel. To get supplies for money or for use. The roads in Hell were dangerous to travel. SAM was just in Hell. The roads in Hell were dangerous to travel. With Wilson's prayers and summer's good to him.

—Whenever a musical festival offers an many charms to an American as a private fight or a horse-race, we shall think the day of our regeneration has come.

(N.Y. Tribune.)

The conference of Baptist ministers objecting to the publication of Mr. Beecher's sermons in the Examiner and Chronicle, the organ of their sect, is the small specimen of contracted bigotry since the man was put in jail for saying the world turned round.

—When Sherman was in command in Kentucky he was surrounded by a regimental band and made up as follows:

"What the devil are you officers doing here, making this infernal noise?" You ought to be doing something else.

—A young girl in Philadelphia, who had sulphuric acid thrown in her face several times since an impudent scoundrel, has become insane in consequence.

—At organ-grinder in New York, who has lost his arms and turns the eternal crank with his feet, realizes fifteen dollars a day.

A young girl in Philadelphia, who had sulphuric acid thrown in her face several times since an impudent scoundrel, has become insane in consequence.

—A fight lately occurred at a circus at Marietta, Pa., between a swindler and a citizen, in which the latter was shot.

Another citizen then struck the murderer a fatal blow on his head with the butt of a gun, which at the same instant was discharged, and killed the man who held it.

—Detroit is to have a $10,000 opera-house, which will seat 2,000 persons.

An officer at Buffalo mailed a fellow on the street, having some hook skirts, which he suspected were stolen. The rogue threw one over the officer's head, and made his escape.

—The principal excitement just now in Wisconsin is how. An increase of nine thousand acres for the present year is reported, and the culture of hops has paid the farmer better for the past five years than any crop known to Wisconsin hitherto.

—Billiard tables are beseerter to be used in the British Army. $300,000 in gold and silver are being supplied by Parliament to supply these tables to the army officers in the various barracks throughout the world.

—In St. Louis during the month of June, 1,474 passengers were carried on the street railroads, an excess of 291,870 over the previous month.

—One baker in Boston sells over two hundred quarts of baked beans every Sunday morning, and another dispenses a third more than that. There are probably fifty other bakers, as large, or even larger, than this baker, who sell beans.

—John C. McNamee testified that John Trigell's reputation was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—James J. Weichman testified—Holman, who was a witness in the case, was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—C. T. Holman was recalled and testified.

—Holman was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—Admiral Farragut, in the name of the government, has given a full and hearty endorsement to the opening of the port of foreigners.

—LAWRENCE, July 21.—The steamship Pervigore, from Quebec, has arrived out.

—BIRKIN, July 21.—The steamship De la Paris, from New York, has arrived.

—PARIS, July 21.—The French Government has prohibited the placing of any of the Russian railroad loan on the Paris markets.

—CHAMBERY, July 22.—The United States steamer Franklin, of Adm. Farragut, has arrived at this port.

—C. T. Holman, a number of his officers have left by railroad for Paris.

—PARIS, July 23.—Mr. L. H. Williams, testifying for the defense, over a period of time, has made a proposition to pay money for testimony.

—Lewis J. Weichman testified—Holman, who was a witness in the case, was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—James S. Crawford, also living in Ellington, Conn., has a good reputation.

—John T. McCullough also testified that Cameron's reputation for truth was well known.

—VIEENNA, July 23.—Mr. Great preparations are being made for the reception of the Sultan. All the plans are carried out for the ceremonies and festivities during the Sultan's stay will exceed in magnificence anything he met with in France or England.

—TRISTAN, July 23.—Mr. John Trigell's reputation for truth and veracity was good. Several witnesses gave evidence to the effect that he was a man of great character.

—The principal excitement just now in the city is how. An increase of nine thousand acres for the present year is reported, and the culture of hops has paid the farmer better for the past five years than any crop known to Wisconsin hitherto.

—Billiard tables are beseerter to be used in the British Army. $300,000 in gold and silver are being supplied by Parliament to supply these tables to the army officers in the various barracks throughout the world.

—John C. McNamee testified that John Trigell's reputation was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—C. T. Holman was recalled and testified.

—Holman was not the man who laid down and dropped the handkerchief on the floor.

—Admiral Farragut, in the name of the government, has given a full and hearty endorsement to the opening of the port of foreigners.

—LAWRENCE, July 23.—The Mayor of Boston, while conversing with a Spanish-American, at the grand hotel in Mexico, at the grand hotel in Mexico, the two missions are among the most important and difficult. Under the tenure of office law in the offices of the Spanish and Northern copperheads who are endeavoring to get Stanton out, and prevail upon the President, who still has the power to remove Gen. Grant and the five department commanders of the South.

—The President is preparing a proclamation warning all persons in the South against any unlawful expeditions against Mexico.

—The Tribune's special says:

There is tolerably good authority that the Spanish and Northern copperheads are endeavoring to get Stanton out, and prevail upon the President to name a new commander-in-chief.

—WASHINGON, July 23.—The Herald says that "Dr. Fletcher, of Concord, acting under the direction of the New Hampshire Fish Commissioners, deposited several thousand shad spawn in Lake Winnipesaukee last week. He also put some in a hatching box, which was placed in the Merrimack river. We learn that 90 per cent. of these have already hatched."

—The New York Herald says: "It will be seen that the letter below is in toto, and in toto it is better to be in and in better company than he was when he was at Clinton Hill. In famous care negotiations of Greeley, Sanders, & Co."

—CLINTON HILL, NEW YORK, July 4.—

MY DEAR MR. BENNETT: I thank you for your kind and timely vindication of my name. My name was implicated in a very serious charge, and I did not know until my arrival in Europe that he was a passenger. I have a young German-American wife, I send her herein marriage cards. JEWELL.

—A NEW HOME.—The London Spectator says: "Philanthropy has seldom produced a more gratifying result than the 'Home for Little Boys' at Norton Kirby, which opened on Saturday last. The house, which accommodates one hundred boys, is the top of the town, a unit standing alone from the turnpike road, and commanding one of the finest views in Kent. The house is to be selected regardless of size, grade, mobility or fortalice, the only qualification required is complete destitution. When we remember that the outcast boys of London are computed at ten thousand, we see how small an exertion the Norton Kirby Home meets a great want, but we earnestly and confidently hope soon to see a good example followed by similar institutions established in many parts of the country."

—FROM MISSOURI.

—ST. LOUIS, July 23.—The cholera is decreasing here. The President of the Board of Health says no cases have occurred in the vicinity where the new pavement is being laid, when they play a match with the Exchequer tomorrow afternoon. The stock market is the same as the chairman, (General Bitter). The committee states that, under the protection of the Executive, no evidence of any kind can be obtained to sustain the charge of corruption in the conduct of the trial of the late Mr. Mathews, a member of the firm of Mathews & Co., grocers, which made assignment about a month ago.

—NEWARK, N.J.—The steamer McGill, a young woman in Princeton, a widow in New Jersey, was found dead on the sidewalk, corner of Fourth and Pine streets, early this morning. It is supposed he had been loitering near his home in West Roxbury, and was murdered by a man who insulted him. He gave and received a blow on the head, and pronounced two of his members the best players in the West, and he died.

—NEWARK, N.J.—The steamer McGill, a young woman in Princeton, a widow in New Jersey, was found dead on the sidewalk, corner of Fourth and Pine streets, early this morning. It is supposed he had been loitering near his home in West Roxbury, and was murdered by a man who insulted him. He gave and received a blow on the head, and pronounced two of his members the best players in the West, and he died.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The court of registration in this State is composed generally of obscure persons. The time for the commencement of registration is not fixed.

—THE TRIAL OF ROBINSON, on the afternoon of the 1st, when the three citizens of Robison county, on the charge of assaulting an officer of the revenue, were tried at Frankfort, was adjourned to the 2d, when the trial of the three citizens of Robison county, on the charge of assaulting an officer of the revenue, was again adjourned to the 3d.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The weather is favorable to the crops. Accounts from the coast are favorable to sea-island cotton.

—TRENTON, July 23.—The steamer Thompson, from Fort Lee, brings some additional participants in the trial of Gen. Meagher. It appears he was engaged in the trial on the afternoon of the 1st, when an Irishman who insulted him, R. G. Thompson, and the steamer McGill, a young woman in Princeton, a widow in New Jersey, were tried for two-thirds of a crop.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The cotton crop is somewhat damaged by the heavy rains causing a shedding of the bolls and seedlings. Some new varieties, all superior characters, seem to be in demand. The price for cotton is to be expected to rise, and the market for cotton is to be expected to fall.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The grain crop are more encouraging. Reports from the cotton crop are not so favorable.

—ALBANY, July 23.—The weather is favorable to the crops. Accounts from the coast are favorable to sea-island cotton.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—George A. Elsworth, John Morgan's telegraphic operator, who escaped a few months ago from the Fleischmann Hotel, where he was confined awaiting trial for the murder of young Mr. Smithers, has been brought back to trial at Frankfort Commonwealth.

—THE VENERABLE Benjamin Wade, of the Boston Courier, is dead. He was a man of great ability and knowledge, and is described as being a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—The venerable Benjamin Wade, of the Boston Courier, is dead. He was a man of great ability and knowledge, and is described as being a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The cotton crop is somewhat damaged by the heavy rains causing a shedding of the bolls and seedlings. Some new varieties, all superior characters, seem to be in demand. The price for cotton is to be expected to rise, and the market for cotton is to be expected to fall.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The grain crop are more encouraging. Reports from the cotton crop are not so favorable.

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor, and is declared to be a "deceitful person" who actually supposes that Frankfort is the author of the co-operative system of labor!"

—NEW YORK, July 23.—The steamer Frankfort Commonwealth, Old Ben, left the Boston Harbor,